

DOMESTIC ABUSE BRIEFING - what you need to know

Shropshire Community Safety Partnership Strategy

Domestic Abuse impacts upon many lives. The effects are often felt across the family especially children who live with this experience.

When domestic abuse is experienced by adults with care and support needs there may be additional effects needing an Adult Safeguarding investigation.

Aim of briefing: Interactive session to raise awareness of the hidden prevalence of Domestic Abuse. The signs and effects felt by the victims. Provide guidance on how to best support and guide those affected by Domestic Abuse.

Learning Outcomes of briefing:

- Identify what Domestic abuse is
- Explore the impact on others living in the home/family
- What to do if you feel something isn't quite right
- Awareness of specialist support service available

Duration: 2 hours

Cost: This briefing has been funded by Shropshire Council and is free of charge to attend. In the event of short notice cancellation or non-attendance the relevant booking agency may charge a cancellation fee as determined by their Cancellation Policy. The cancellation charge will be advised on your booking confirmation.

Target audience:

- Individuals working with or who have any contact with adults, families or children
- Shropshire Council Employees.

It is expected that all workers will access this awareness/induction level of training. Which provides a valuable face to face learning experience.

For those working with vulnerable individuals we suggest you also attend the one-day Domestic Abuse Awareness training delivered by Joint Training or the Domestic Abuse & its Impact on Children module delivered by SSCB. These modules explore more about the perpetrator, hear from survivors and explore cases of domestic abuse.

NB. If professionals have previously attended the Domestic Abuse Awareness training delivered by Joint Training or the Domestic Abuse & its Impact on Children module delivered by SSCB then this briefing does not need to be attended.

Briefing Dates:

- Thursday 13 September 2018 from 5pm to 7pm at The Shirehall, Shrewsbury
